

House Resolution No. 227

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of Show-Me State youths who admirably have demonstrated their true potential as future societal leaders through the excellence of their achievements as students; and

Whereas, Jayson Erdman of Rock Port has distinguished himself as the Optimist Teenager of the Week; and

Whereas, the son of Jay Erdman and the late Stephanie Erdman, Jayson Erdman has two sisters, April and Brooke, and a brother, Jacob; and

Whereas, thus far in his school career, Jayson Erdman has been involved in football, wrestling, track, weight-lifting, R-Club, Peer Counselor, FFA, and FCCLA activities; and

Whereas, in addition to serving as an FFA officer for three years, Jayson Erdman has appeared on the Honor Roll for three years and was selected as the 2004 football homecoming king; and

Whereas, Jayson Erdman has played on the Auburn Legion Baseball team, a competitive sporting endeavor which he wants to repeat this coming summer; and

Whereas, Jayson Erdman is a volunteer coach with flag football, baseball, and wrestling who spends his summers mowing yards and helping to umpire baseball and softball games; and

Whereas, Jayson Erdman plans to attend college and major in physical education after his high school graduation:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Jayson Erdman as Optimist Teenager of the Week and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and academic success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Jayson Erdman of Rock Port, Missouri.
